

The Ready Steady Cook Challenge

'The Ultimate Team Building Challenge – just another conference ... at least that is what your delegates will think until the afternoon breakout sessions are interrupted by our Comic Chef!

What happens next? After a period of stunned silence your teams are sure to rise to the challenge –

They have 3 hours to cook their own 3-course Evening Meal!

After the challenge has been outlined by our link personality (scripted by our creative team to suit your conference strap-line) the groups will be given a health and safety briefing, be issued with their team aprons and rosettes, chef's hats, and their personalised Challenge Guide.

They will be given a food quiz to complete, A table dressing store in which to spend their fun money and earn items with which to decorate their own tables for the gala dinner, and a floristry store so they can make a table centrepiece.

Additional tasks must also be completed – (beware not all the tasks will be listed in the Challenge guide, some will be announced during the session to add an element of chaos for your teams to contend with!

Tasks:

Bread Roll Making, Cake Decorating, Napery Challenge, Tower Building, What's in the Box? – Food Trial, Food Art, Chicken Challenge and Cocktail King.

The team building elements can be tailored to suit your specific requirements but are intended to test your teams to the limit!
